

Participant Information Sheet

Sugar reduction technologies workshop

Project overview

This interactive webinar will be hosted by CSIRO's food innovation centre in collaboration with Food Innovation Australia Limited (FIAL).

The workshop will provide a forum to;

- Hear up to date information on sugar reduction technologies and consumer insights
- Learn about CSIRO's IP in sugar reduction technology and to gain industry feedback on its potential applications
- Network with other food businesses and industry experts and meet prospective new project partners
- Participate in a facilitated discussion to explore opportunities in sugar reduction technologies in beverages

What does participation involve?

- Participation in the workshop is voluntary, and you may leave at any time.
- The workshop will seek participant feedback verbally.

How will my information be used?

CSIRO is collecting your personal information, which may include your name, occupation, industry and opinions/feedback related to the workshop content for the purposes of conducting the workshop and reporting on the outcomes, i.e.: your opinions in relation to sugar reduction technologies.
